MONONA GROVE SCHOOL DISTRICT

Board Policy 361

SELECTION OF INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS

The legal responsibility for instructional materials used in the Monona Grove School District rests ultimately with the Board. However, responsibility for the selection of instructional materials shall be delegated to the professionally trained staff employed by the district.

The Monona Grove School District shall not discriminate in the selection and evaluation of instructional materials, including instructional media center (IMC) materials, on the basis of sex, race, homeless status, religion, national origin, color, ancestry, creed, pregnancy, marital or parental status, sexual orientation, handicap or physical, mental, emotional or learning disability. Discrimination complaints shall be processed in accordance with established procedures.
